Scholarships & Resources for Students in New York

Undocumented students qualify for in-state tuition if they have attended a New York State high school for 2 or more years and graduated OR if they received a GED from an approved program. Students must apply to college within five years of obtaining their high school diploma or their GED in order to qualify for in-state tuition.

Yet with the rising costs of college, in-state tuition has become increasingly difficult to afford. This document provides a list of scholarships that undocumented students (who do not have a Social Security Number) can apply for. It also includes for students who have deferred action (DACA), and first-year applicators.

Please be mindful that scholarship deadlines and requirements can change every year! In this document you will find links to the direct websites, when looking for scholarships be sure to check the deadlines often! Also please be sure to double-check the scholarship website to ensure that you have all of the necessary documents in your application.

If you are unsure if you meet the criteria of a scholarship, contact the organization directly and ask! Remember: never pay to apply for a scholarship. Look out for scholarship scams. Some of the scholarships provided below are open nationally and other are specific to New York State CUNY universities.

New scholarships often arise, look out for updated versions of this document. If you find a scholarship that is not on this document send them our way!

Important: DACA recipients, Permanent Residents, or US Citizens are eligible to apply for scholarship that require a Social Security Number. But, be aware for scammers, and directly contact administrators for more information.

*This document was made by consulting MALDEF's Scholarship Guide, E4FC Resource guide, scholarship information from undocumented youth led organizations, and online research.

Remember this is documents is a work in progress, look out for updated versions for more scholarships!

It has been brought to our attention that a type-o in our online instructions has caused confusion and concern that we were no longer allowing applications from students not eligible for federal aid. The website has been corrected and we want to assure you that we have and will continue to support those student activists who are not eligible for federal aid. We do not require citizenship or a social security number. We do require... activism, financial need and enrollment in an accredited educational or training program. We have proudly awarded scholarships to students regardless of citizenship status for over 50 years and will continue to do so. In solidarity!
